

Joint Offshore Energy and NDT Technical Group Meeting
Non-Destructive Testing and Inspection in the Offshore Energy Industry

Wednesday 21 November 2018

Jury's Inn, Aberdeen Airport

09.00	Registration
09.30	Welcome and introduction
	Alan Denney, TG8 Chairman, AKD Materials Consulting Ltd Chris Bradshaw, TG4 Chairman, Bradshaw Engineering
09.40	Benefits of Laser Scanning Assets
	Gianni Brooke, Global DI
10.25	New developments in NII vessel inspection
	Gary Lockett, Olympus
11.10	Coffee break & networking
11.25	Splash zone through subsea inspection using advanced NDT
	Andreas Boenisch, Innospection
12.10	Highlights from the HOIS JIP: NDT methods for CUI inspection and use of UAV (drones) for remote external visual inspection
	Steve Burch, ESRTech
12.55	Lunch & networking
13.55	Qualification of IWEX ultrasonic 2D and 3D imaging for new construction girth weld inspection
	Niels Portzgen, Applus RTD
14.40	Guided waves for the detection of corrosion in pipelines and pipe supports
	John Lilley, Sonomatic
15.25	Coffee break & networking
15.40	Case Study: Inspection of Schiehallion bulkhead-stringer welds and stringer plate
	Doug Wylie, TWI Ltd
16.25	Closing remarks
16.30	End of day