

ICorr Birmingham Conference 9th February 2023

INSTITUTE OF CORROSION

BIRMINGHAM 1-Day CONFERENCE - A Special Awards-Driven Event covering 4 Main Themes – Electrochemistry, Cathodic Protection, Production Chemistry and Protective Coatings.

To be held at BIRMINGHAM COUNCIL HOUSE - Located in the centre of Birmingham, the Council House is a marvellous Grade II* listed building of exceptionally crafted detail.

Event Registration: To Apply: please email completed form attached to:
admin@icorr.org

BIRMINGHAM
NEW STREET STATION

300 METRES (0.2 MILE)

BIRMINGHAM
SNOW HILL STATION

wRES (0.3 MILE)

BIRMINGHAM
MOOR STREET STATION

800 METRES (0.5 MILE)

BIRMINGHAM
AIRPORT

20 KM (12.4 MILES)

--	--	--	--

ICorr Birmingham Conference 9th February 2023

A Special Awards-Driven Event covering 4 Main Themes – Electrochemistry, Cathodic Protection, Production Chemistry and Protective Coatings.

11.00 -11.30	Arrive: Registration and Networking, Tea and Coffee served in the Chamberlain Room.
11.30 -11.40	Welcome from Bill Whittaker, Event Co-ordinator
11.40 -11.50	Welcome from the ICorr President, Stephen Tate
11.50 -12.40	Session 1 - ICorr Award Winners Talks in the Chamber: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Alison Davenport – Pitting: the delicate balance between dissolution and passivation.• Chris Lynch – Cathodic Protective Standards Making.
12.40 -13.30	Lunch in the Chamberlain Room.
13.30 – 14.20	Session 2 - Symposium Speakers in the Chamber: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Ken Lax – BS EN ISO 21857:2021 Prevention of corrosion on pipeline systems influenced by stray currents.• George Winning – Latest Innovations in Production Chemistry.
14.20 -14.40	Tea and Coffee Break - Networking in the Chamberlain Room.
14.40 – 16.00	Session 3 - Symposium Speakers in the Chamber: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Chris Googan – Why do Protective Coatings Fail?• Simon Daly – Challenges for Selecting Coatings for the fixed and floating offshore wind industry.• Malcolm Morris – Update on International Standards Activity Within the Protective Coatings Sector.
16.00 -16.30	Close-out / Tea and Coffee Break / Networking in the Chamberlain Room.