EVENT OVERVIEW

The Institute of Corrosion Aberdeen branch would like to invite you to the 2026 Corrosion Awareness Event. The event focusses on corrosion engineering in the offshore energy sector from design to late life operation, including challenges and novel technologies. It will be beneficial for those who want to learn or refresh their knowledge of corrosion engineering, and to understand the various roles and challenges in the offshore energy sector. LR will explain the services they offer in the oil and gas and offshore wind sectors.

ABOUT LLOYD'S REGISTER

Trusted maritime and energy sector advisors, partnering with clients to drive performance across the ocean economy.

Lloyd's Register (LR) is a global professional services group specialising in marine and offshore engineering, technology and digital solutions. We were created more than 260 years ago as the world's first marine classification society to improve and set standards for the safety of ships.

Today we are a leading provider of classification and compliance services to the marine and offshore industries, helping our clients design, construct and operate their assets to accepted levels of safety and environmental compliance.

We also provide advisory services and digital solutions, supporting fleet and voyage performance and optimisation. Through OneOcean, LR delivers integrated digital solutions supporting voyage planning, optimisation, compliance, training and fleet performance across more than 30,000 vessels globally.

In the race to zero emissions, our research, advisory and technical expertise and industry-firsts are supporting a safe, sustainable maritime energy transition.

Lloyd's Register Group is wholly owned by the Lloyd's Register Foundation, a politically and financially independent global charity that promotes safety and education.
